

The Bible in TWO YEARS

With Historical Chronology Prioritized*

*Notes on the order:

1. In the Old Testament,
 - a. Each book (or in some instances: each section of a book) is in the order of the history it portrays or, with the poetic and prophetic books, of the history in which it was written.
 - b. After reading about David in 1 & 2 Samuel, you'll read the Psalms, which are primarily the writing of David.
 - c. As you read about Solomon in 2 Chronicles 1-9, you'll read Solomon's writings (Song of Songs, Proverbs, and Ecclesiastes) at the likely times in his life that he wrote those books.
 - d. The post-Solomonic part of 2 Chronicles has been kept together.
 - e. The readings in 1 & 2 Kings are interrupted throughout to stop and read from the prophets who ministered at the various times within the narrative of 2 Kings.
 - f. The prophets who ministered after the end of 2 Kings are read in order of their chronology.
2. With the New Testament, likely writing dates for each New Testament book are given.
 - a. The Gospel of Matthew comes first, as it may have been the earliest Gospel. It gives you the sweep of Jesus' life.
 - b. Matthew is followed by Acts, whose narrative continues the ministry of Jesus through His apostles.
 - c. The narrative of Acts is interrupted throughout in order to read various epistles whenever the narrative of Acts arrives at a point at which an epistle was written. The chapters of Acts are identified with the historical dates of the events they describe.
 - d. Luke, perhaps the second of the Gospels, comes next, and the remainder of the books are then ordered by their likely dates of composition.

Layout of the Readings

The readings divide the whole of the Bible into 730 readings (two years = 365 x 2) of closely equal length.

The readings are not dated, but are numbered, from 1-730.

Reason for the Layout

Since the readings are numbered, not dated, you can start your reading at any time of the year, not just January 1.

Additionally, the sheets don't have dated readings for this purpose: so that there are no guilt feelings (or any weight) of "getting behind" nor of having to have a double-reading day to "catch up" when you miss a day. If you miss a day, just pick up where you left off, with the next reading only (don't do two days of reading in one day!). If you try to make up missed days (instead of just reading the next, single reading), you may get discouraged and come to hate these sheets, which is the opposite purpose of the arrangement of these sheets!

Read the whole Bible in two years.

When you complete a reading, write the date on the sheet next to the reading. That'll give you a good sense of your progress as time rolls on.

As you work through the Bible in two years, you'll be blessed, as you have a good bit of Scripture wash over you each day.

If you have less time on a day, it's fine to split a reading across two days. Do it! It's OK!

Think long-term: even if it takes you three years to read through the Bible through these sheets, ask, "Where do I 'want to be' in three years? Having read the whole Bible, or not?" Two years or three years or four years will most likely come for you. Why not arrive at that time having read the whole Bible?

Now, go to it! Keep reading. Keep progressing. You'll be really glad you did.
