

The Bible in TWO YEARS

With Historical Chronology Prioritized*

Notes on the order:

1. In the Old Testament,
 - a. Each book (or in some instances: section of a book) is in the order of the history it portrays or, with the poetic and prophetic books, of the history in which it was written.
 - b. The historical account of David in 1 & 2 Samuel precedes the Psalms, which are primarily the writing of David.
 - c. The first historical account of Solomon (1 Kings 1-11) precedes his writings (Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Songs), and the second account of his life (beginning in 2 Chronicles 1) comes after his writings.
 - d. The post-Solomonic part of 2 Chronicles has been kept together.
 - e. The post-Solomonic parts of 1 & 2 Kings are interrupted to stop and read from the prophets who ministered at the times just read in Kings.
2. With the New Testament,
 - a. The synoptic Gospels are first, in order of their writing dates, to establish the New Testament history with the ministry of Jesus.
 - b. The reading in Acts is interrupted throughout in order to read various epistles whenever the narrative arrives at a point at which an epistle was written. Also, the chapters of Acts are identified with the historical dates of the events they describe.
 - c. All the epistles, both those concurrent with the narrative in Acts and those written after Acts' conclusion, are ordered by their writing dates.
 - d. The writings of John, being the last-written books of the New Testament, are last, and are ordered by their likely dates of composition.
 - e. Lastly, likely writing dates for each New Testament book are given.

Layout of the Readings

The readings divide the whole of the Bible into 730 readings ($365 \times 2 = 730$ = two years!) of closely equal length.

The readings are not dated, but are numbered, from 1-730.

Reason for the Layout

Since the readings are numbered, not dated, you can start your reading at any time of the year, not just January 1.

Additionally, the sheets don't have dated readings for this purpose: so that there are no guilt feelings (or any weight) of "getting behind" nor of having to have a double-reading day to "catch up" when you miss a day. If you miss a day, it's probably best just to pick up where you left off, with the next reading only.

Otherwise, you may come to hate these sheets and to be discouraged, which is the opposite purpose for which these sheets were created! d!

Read the whole Bible in two years.

When you complete a reading, write the date on the sheet next to the reading. That'll give you a good sense of your progress as time rolls on.

As you work through the Bible in two years, you'll be blessed, as you have a good bit of Scripture wash over you each day.

Lastly, if you have to split a reading across two days, do it! It's OK!
